

Express Shipment of Unaccompanied Baggage

Sailors on permanent change of station (PCS) or temporary duty orders can ship unaccompanied baggage to new duty stations, according to the Navy Family Services Division of the Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP).

Sailors can have unaccompanied baggage shipped by express services to new duty stations in three to seven days in the continental United States and in 10 to 14 days overseas. To qualify, Sailors must be on permanent change of station (PCS) or temporary duty orders and must have a legitimate need, such as a short reporting date to a deploying ship or a PCS without authorized leave in between.

The program covers items of necessity, such as clothing, cooking and eating utensils, small appliances, etc. Furniture is not included in this program.

Sailors who want more information about express shipment of unaccompanied baggage should contact their local Personal Property Office, check NAVSUP's Web site at www.navsup.navy.mil, or contact the NAVSUP Household Goods Helpline at 1-800-444-7789.
