

FFSP Teaches Sailors to Get Smart on Money Matters

Sailors who want to increase their wealth or need some help in meeting financial challenges can attend classes and consult with financial experts at no cost through the Personal Financial Management (PFM) program, available through their Command Financial Specialist (CFS) or the Fleet and Family Support Program (FFSP).

The PFM program can assist Sailors with a variety of financial issues, including military pay matters, banking and financial services, developing a budget, car buying strategies, credit management, consumer awareness, insurance, retirement planning, financial planning for deployment or permanent change of station, and savings and investments.

The PFM Web site, www.ffsp.navy.mil/pfm/pfm.htm, is another resource that Sailors can use to learn about personal financial management. The interactive site presents much of the information in a game format.

In addition to CFS, there are 52 Fleet and Family Support Centers and personal financial management program delivery sites worldwide. For more information on FFSC programs or to locate the nearest center, visit the FFSC Web site at www.ffsp.navy.mil or call their 24-hour information and referral hotline at 800-FSC-LINE.
