Commissary, Fisher House Offer Scholarships

The Defense Commissary Agency and the Fisher House Foundation have teamed up again to offer educational scholarships to children of military families and retirees.

The Scholarships for Military Children Program is marking its sixth year. The goal is to provide at least one $1,500 scholarship for each of DeCA's 268 commissaries worldwide. More than one scholarship per commissary may be awarded.

Authorized applicants include unmarried children under age 21 of active-duty, Guard or Reserve, or military retiree families. Applicants may also range up to 23 years in age if they are enrolled in school.

Applicants are required to write and submit an essay on why they admire a great past or present military leader.

The application period for this year's DeCA-Fisher House scholarship program starts Nov. 1 and closes Feb. 22, 2006

Application forms for the program will become available in November for pick-up at commissaries worldwide and for download via the Internet at www.commissaries.com or at www.militaryscholar.org.
