EO Office Seeks Excellence in Military Service Award Nominees

The Navy Equal Opportunity (EO) Office is accepting nominations for the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) Excellence in Military Service Awards until May 18.

The LULAC Excellence in Military Service Awards will be awarded to 12 service men and women, of any descent, who have distinguished themselves in the war on terrorism, and who best support the ideals of duty, honor and country and those who best exemplify the core values of their respective branch of service.

All packages should include a black and white or high-resolution digital head and shoulders photograph in a JPEG format (either emailed or sent on diskette or CD); a typewritten, single-spaced narrative describing the nominee's accomplishments that support the LULAC award criteria; and a typewritten citation summarizing the nominee's accomplishments for publication in a program brochure.

Winners will be recognized at the annual LULAC national convention during the DoD Armed Forces Breakfast scheduled for June 29 in Milwaukee.

For questions on submitting packages, visit www.npc.navy.mil/CommandSupport/Diversity or contact the Navy EO office at 901-874-2507 or DSN 882-2507.
