LINK-Perspective Magazine Back in Print as LINK

The former LINK-Perspective, the Navy Personnel Command's (NPC) magazine for Navy members, is back in print as the new LINK magazine.

The first issue is expected to reach sea and shore commands in July and has already been posted on the NPC Web site, www.npc.navy.mil.

LINK is now a full-color magazine, published three times per year, both in hard-copy and online, and features articles on policies, procedures and products that will help Sailors enhance and guide their careers.

The magazine will continue to support both officers and enlisted Sailors, as well as contain informative articles affecting everyone's career.
