Justice Department Presents Web Site to Explain Military Rights

The Department of Justice has launched a Web site to protect service members' rights.

The Justice Department Web site outlines the rights service members have under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, and the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.

Any service member with questions can visit the Justice Department Web site at www.servicemembers.gov. Military lawyers can help service members and their families navigate through the laws.
