

Exchange Cooperative Efforts Result in Gift Card 'Cross Acceptance'

A sustained focus on cooperative efforts between the Army & Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES), Navy Exchange Service Command (NEXCOM) and Marine Corps Exchange (MCX) is paying off for military families who, beginning Nov. 6, are now able to redeem NEX, AAFES, and MCX-specific gift cards at any Army, Air Force, Navy or Marine Corps exchange facility.

For many years, the Military Exchange Services have collaborated on projects of common value, but in 2006 the Exchange Cooperative Efforts Board placed additional emphasis on initiatives like gift card cross acceptance.

As a result of these cooperative efforts, each of the exchanges now accept their sister exchanges' gift cards.

Exchange gift cards are available up to $500 and can be purchased at military exchanges worldwide. They can also be purchased online at www.aafes.com or www.navy-nex.com. MCX gift cards can only be purchased at MCX locations.
