

Greetings and Happy New Year to all!

Many people make resolutions for the New Year. Instead of resolutions, I propose that we make goals. For my goals this year, I have decided to focus on our CNR's expectations. They are timeless. So if you have not made any resolutions, don't feel bad, use these goals instead, I think you will find they are worthy of your pursuit.

GOALS for 2012:

1. Think! Our job is to produce thoughtful work to further our Commanders' Intent.
2. Be proactive-accept responsibility for your actions, your thoughts, your life (Covey).
3. Take care of yourself- "P" vs. "PC" (personally, physically, mentally, and spiritually (Covey).
4. "Mission first, People Always".
5. Focus your work on the Sailors of our great Navy.
6. Do your job; expect others to do theirs.
7. Be selfless to a fault - we are public servants.
8. Diversity is an absolute necessity in order to arrive at the best decisions - we need others! Seek diversity. Learn, think and act different than you have in the past.

Remember, You Matter, Make a positive impact on someone's life This Year!
